About The Warehouse

The Warehouse, Orlando's premier hitting facility is re-opening to the public after being used as a private facility for the past year. The 9000 square foot facility is equipped with 4 batting cages, 2 pitching machines and 2 portable mounds. The facility will be run by former professional player, Kent Matthes:

- U of Alabama home run record
- 2009 SEC Player of the Year
- Colorado Rockies (2009-2014)
- Oakland Athletics (2014-2015)
- MLB roster (2013-2014)

The Warehouse has been home to many professional players over the years but is now opening it's doors to younger players that want to learn how to play the game the right way. The Warehouse is committed to providing a positive environment while teaching the physical mechanics and mental approach to allow each player reach their potential.
